Amſterdam, Auguſt 6.

LETTERS are come to Antwerp and hither, from Cadix, Port St. Mary, and Sevil. Thoſe from Cadix are of the 5th of July, and ſay all was in Confuſion there on the News of the Revolution in Spain, and that the French began to think of leaving Cadix, and were ſelling off their Goods as faſt as they could. Thoſe from Sevil are of the 6th, and import, that the Turn of Affairs in Brabant had caus'd a great Conſternation among King Philip's Party in Andaluſia; but that they knew little how things went in Spain, their Correſpondence with Madrid being broken off. 'Tis advis'd from St. John de Luz and Bayone, that 10 or 12 of the principal Merchants of St. Sebaſtian had been ſiez'd and carried Priſoners to the Citadel of Bayone, under Pretence that they were in the Intereſt of King Charles.

From the Paris Letter, dated Auguſt 2.

The freſheſt Letters from the Camp before Turin, are of the 22d paſt, and import, that that Afternoon at 4 a Clock, the Beſieged made a Salley with 2000 Men and 400 Horſes. That they retook one of the 3 Lunettes which our Men poſſeſs'd themſelves of the Night before, and kept it about a Quarter of an Hour, but our Grenadiers drove them out of it with the Loſs of 400 Men. In this Action were loſt on our ſide, 4 Captains of Grenadiers, with their Lieutenants and Sub-Lieutenants, and about 60 Soldiers were kill'd or wounded. An Arret is publiſh'd here, importing, that his Majeſty being inform'd the lowering the Value of Gold and Silver Coyns, which purſuant to his Declaration of the 8th of June was to begin the 1ſt of Auguſt, would be prejudicial to many private Perſons, thinks fit to order, that the ſaid lowering of the Coyn ſhall not take Place till the 1ſt of September; till which time the Coyn is to continue current, viz. the Louis d'Or at 13 Livres 10 Sols, the Crown at 3 Livres 12 Sols; that the firſt of September the Louis d'Or ſhall fall 5 Sols, and the Crown 1 Sol; the firſt of November the Louis d'Or ſhall fall 5 Sols more, and the Crown 1 Sol; the firſt of December the Louis d'Or ſhall fall yet 5 Sols more, and the Crown 2 Sols: After which they are to be current, the Louis d'Or at 12 Livres 15 Sols, and the Crown 3 Livres 8 Sols.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Auguſt 5.

Courtray, July 29. Cannon and Ammunition paſſes by here daily for the Army before Menin. Not only the Peaſants of the Spaniſh Flanders are oblig'd to furniſh a certain Number of Pioneers, Faſcines, and Carts; but the Peaſants of the Caſtellanies of Ipres, Menin, Furnes, Belle, Caſſel, and other Diſtricts in French Flanders, are oblig'd to do the like. The French Troops that were about Dunkirk, are march'd towards Bologne and the adjoyning Sea-Coaſt. The King of France has ask'd 10000 Men of the City of Liſle, but was flatly refus'd; and the Burghers have openly declar'd that if the Town be beſieg'd, they will not patiently ſee their Houſes damag'd by the Fire; ſo that the French can only defend the Caſtle.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Auguſt 7.

Courtray, Auguſt 4. To Day the Duke of Marlborough, General Saliſch, and other Generals, as alſo the Field Deputies of the States, din'd together in this Town in the Houſe of M. de Fonſeca; and after Dinner held a Council of War. We have Intelligence that the Garriſon of Menin, the Swiſs eſpecially, have begun to Mutiny, threatening to throw down their Arms; but that they were quieted with Money: Alſo that the Governour has taken all the Money and Plate which the Burghers had carried for Safety into the Monaſteries, to pay his Men; giving the Owners Notes under his Hand, promiſing they ſhall be repaid by the King.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated Auguſt 6.

Maeſtricht, Auguſt 2. The Report ſpread of the Earl of Albemarle's being exchang'd for the Marquis d'Alegre, was groundleſs; his Lordſhip not having been a Priſoner. 'Tis true he was ſtop'd by a Party-Leader of the Garriſon of Namur, to whom he gave a Note owning who he was, and alſo a Copy of the Paſſport he produc'd to him: But that Note and that Copy were return'd to him the 12th of June, and the Party-Leader was impriſon'd for ſtopping the Earl without reſpecting his Paſſport, and was not ſet at Liberty till his Lordſhip had interceded for him. 'Tis true, that ſince that Time the Marſhal de Villeroy claim'd him as his Priſoner, notwithſtanding the foreſaid Note and Copy had been return'd and the Party-Leader impriſon'd: But after the Marſhal had been rightly inform'd of the whole Matter, he renounc'd all Claim to his Lordſhip, and the Duke of Bavaria did the like, by Letters which a Trumpeter brought the 29th of laſt Month to my Lord Duke of Marlborough and the Field-Marſhal M. d'Auverquerque.

Hague, Auguſt 3. Their High Mightineſſes have been very much ſurpriz'd to hear of ſome Proceedings relation to the Election of a Biſhop of Munſter. We are told the Report made to them by M. Itterſum who is return'd from Munſter, is to this Effect, viz. that the Majority of the Canons were for the Biſhop of Paderborn, in whoſe Favour thoſe of M. van Gahlen's Party had declar'd: And that the Dean, with a few of the Canons, was for the Biſhop of Oſnabrug. Upon this the Count of Eck the Emperor's Miniſter, did on the Part of his Imperial Majeſty exclude by a formal Act the Biſhop of Paderborn, on an Allegation that he had formerly given his Word not to ſtand Candidate for the Biſhoprick of Munſter: And on this Occaſion ſome hot Words paſs'd between the ſaid Count and M. Itterſum: Among other things the former ſaid, he he wonder'd Forreigners, and of a contrary Religion, should concern themselves with the Affairs of the Empire and the Election of a Roman Catholick Bishop. M. Itterſum replied, that had it not been for Forreigners the Empire would have been reduc'd to a low Condition 2 Years ago; that it behov'd the Chapter to consider whether this Exclusion was not a manifest Breach of the German Liberties; and that if the Chapter should think fit to proceed to the Election, the new elected Bishop should be supported in his Dignity. Things being at this Pass, the Chapter receiv'd a Letter from the Pope, commanding them to defer the Election ad Menſem inde proximum. M. Itterſum left the Chapter examining that Letter, which 'tis not doubted was industriously procur'd from Rome by the Bishop of Osnabrug's Party.

Hague, August 6. We are inform'd the States have written a Letter to the Court of Vienna about the Affair of the Election of a Bishop of Munster; and at the same Time complain of the drawing off Troops from the Upper Rhine, to be employ'd against the Hungarians. The Election abovementioned is fix'd to the 30th of this Month. The Bishop of Paderborn has a Majority of the Cantons, (by 4,) on his Side.
